has the pleasure to invite you to

THE FIRST
INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC SYMPOSIUM

THE LANGUAGES OF CONTEMPORARY LITERARY STUDIES

26 – 27 SEPTEMBER 2024

VENUE: THE PEDAGOGICAL LIBRARY IN SIEDLCE,
2 ASLANOWICZ(A) STREET, SIEDLCE

The three events of recent years—the COVID19 pandemic, the Russian invasion of Ukraine, and the rising impact of AI in various areas of our lives—have caused major changes, concerning the epistemology of the humanities, including literary studies.

The planned Symposium is scheduled to discuss issues related to these events in plenary and section meetings:

— I —

The languages of contemporary description/interpretation/transcription of literary classics; “new readings of literary classics” and their “re-interpretations”; “shifts” in the framework of the literary canon under the influence of modernity

— II —

Metaphorology/rhetoric/propaganda of contemporary literary studies; the concepts of “Dostoevsky’s guilt” and the “the case of Nietzsche” in the paradigms of literary studies after February of 2022

— III —

The ontology of a literary work towards the contemporary epistemology of its interpretation

— IV —

Contemporary historical discourses towards the modern concepts in literary studies

— V —

Contemporary literature and contemporary literary studies in the face of artificial intelligence;
“non-anthropological” and “artificial” intelligence in the history of European culture: mythology, fantasy, utopia/dystopia
(English-language section)
